Mt. Macrina Manor

Mt. Macrina Manor, sponsored by the Sisters of St. Basil, is a 134 bed, Catholic, non-profit, long-term care health care facility that provides holistic and specialized care to persons of all denominations.

The Manor, established in 1971, is located in Uniontown, Pennsylvania, about one hour south of Pittsburgh, directly off Route 40 in a scenic, peaceful rural setting. The facility offers 24 hour nursing care, rehabilitative services, and pastoral care to its residents. A designated Dementia Unit is also one of its features.

Our staff continues the mission of the Sisters of providing joyous, compassionate care that preserves the human dignity of all whom we serve.
