Why you should be (re)elected?:

I want to continue leading and nurturing the GCU to make it better than it is today and to continue the GCU's growth. My years on the GCU Board of Directors is an asset to the GCU and it brings perspective and expertise to the Board. Consistency and Leadership is vital to the success of the GCU to meet current and future challenges while preserving our heritage, culture and traditions. All of this and more are reasons I want to continue as part of this invaluable team as a member of the Board of Directors. My passion for the GCU allows me to work harder in making the GCU the company it is today.
