

Here, I am volunteering at the St. Elias fish fry, which I like to do most weekends during Lent.

In one of the clubs I have joined while in college, we did a roadside cleanup. We cleaned up trash along miles of this highway.

While in high school I played on the varsity basketball team. On the weekends we would host camps for children to help them improve on their skills.