

This picture is from when I volunteered at the Cleveland Food Bank, helping package nonperishable food for people in need during the holidays.

Helping out at the local elementary school was something I did a few times a week. I would help the students with cutting and glueing, and also reading to them. In this picture, me and my classmate are reading a Christmas book we wrote.

This is a picture of my friend and I when we volunteered to work the concession stand for a football game at the local stadium. We prepared the food, served customers, as well as cleaning up the stands afterwards.

This picture is of my sister and I volunteering to help run a local softball tournament. We helped teams check in, directed them to the fields, and took pictures.

These are two of the dogs I took care of when volunteering at the local animal shelter. During this time I fed the dogs, played with them, and took them on long walks.

This is a picture of my friend and I volunteering to help run a volleyball camp at our school. We helped the kids learn skills for volleyball and had a tournament at the end where we had to dress up according to a theme.

Wreaths across America is an organization that provides wreaths for veterans' graves during the holidays. I was able to be a part of this and I helped put the wreaths on the graves and saying the names of the veterans to thank them for their service.
