

I volunteer at the Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank during my days off and summer break: (1&2) free produce giveaways; (3) the Market and Repack Center; (4), outdoor senior box distributions; and (5) the Empty Bowls annual fundraiser.

I volunteered on behalf of the National Honor Society and for 4 years of high school. (1) Through the GCU, I partnered with West Mifflin High School's teacher-student basketball fundraiser to raise money for a senior student undergoing chemotherapy; (2) assisted at NHS craft table at high school Halloween concert; (3) led the icebreaker at the ice cream social; (4) replied to the elementary students' Letters to Santa and collected toys for the annual toy drive. (5&6) collected/delivered truckloads of food to the Food Bank for the holidays;

Volunteering was instilled in me from an early age helping at Byzantine churches and GCU functions: (1) cleaning inside/ outside of St. John the Baptist church-South Side; (2&3) Easter Bunny/Santa Claus's assistant at GCU socials-St. John Chrysostom-Greenfield; (4) selling raffle tickets at Christmas fundraiser at St. John the Baptist; (5) helping at Kennywood games-Byzantine Day; (6) helping at St. Pius X-Carrick annual rummage sale; and (7) collecting, boxing and taking boxes to UPS for Soles4Souls fundraiser.

Volunteering at nondenominational churches (1&2) set up/clean up and serving community dinners at Hot Metal Bridge Faith Community-South Side and (3) Vacation Bible School junior helper (3 years) at Source Church of Pittsburgh-West Mifflin.
