To whom it may concern,

The purpose of this communication is to most favorably recommend Nico Varlotta for optimum consideration for the scholarship at hand. I find Nico to be efficient in his daily approach.

Nico is a hard working individual with a winning attitude that allows him to be successful when he is approached with new challenges. He is a take-charge person and places a great deal of emphasis on building relationships with individuals that he interacts with.

Nico's strong belief in his ability to acquire new skills and improve through practice was likely shaped by his years as a baseball player. Nico shows respect for teachers and peers, is honest and trustworthy in dealings with others, and seeks responsibilities and follows through.

Nico has the capacity to work independently as well. He can be entrusted with difficult, long-term assignments, knowing that they will be completed in a thorough and efficient manner with minimal guidance or direction needed. I consider Nico a caring, capable, and dedicated individual who deserves the scholarship at hand.

It is without reservation that I recommend Nico for the scholarship at hand. His ability, well-rounded skill set, and overall pleasant demeanor will make him an immediate asset to society. Please feel free to reach out to me if I can offer any more insight into the character of Nico Varlotta.

Sincerely,

Dear Members of the Scholarship Committee,

I am writing to offer my highest recommendation for Nico Varlotta, who is applying for a scholarship at your esteemed institution. I have had the privilege of knowing Nico for the past 3 years in my role as Kid's Ministry Coordinator and during this time, I have been consistently impressed by his outstanding character, work ethic, and dedication to service. He is known for being an incredible scholar athlete, for which he certainly is, but I am fortunate enough to see another side of him as well. A side that doesn't receive the public accolades that his sports career does, but the side that truly reveals the kind of young man he is.

What sets Nico apart is his unwavering commitment to serving others, particularly younger children in our church. For the past 4 years, Nico has devoted countless hours to volunteering in our 4-5th grade program. Nico has become a trusted role model for these kids, and it's clear that he has a special ability to connect with them, offering both guidance and friendship. The kids love him, and he helps create an environment where kids want to be. In this role, Nico has demonstrated a remarkable combination of patience, empathy, and responsibility.

I have worked with high school students for the past 20 years and this is not something you see often. Nico is not serving to collect a minimum number of service hours for school, and he is not serving because it is expected of him. He makes the choice to serve on his own driven by his own conviction to care for others and out of genuine desire to give back and make a difference. Being a scholar athlete requires a young person to give countless hours to their education and their sport. Nico also works a part time job. He has every excuse not to volunteer, but he finds the time and even goes above and beyond what is required. It is also worth noting that Nico approaches service with a deep sense of humility and grace. He never seeks recognition for his work.

Nico Varlotta is a compassionate, driven, hardworking and highly responsible individual who brings out the best in others. I am confident that he will continue to be a positive force in whatever path he will choose to pursue in the future. I strongly believe that Nico is more than deserving of this scholarship and I wholeheartedly recommend him for this honor.

Thank you for considering this exceptional student for your scholarship. If you have any further questions or need additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Lyndsay Brasher
